REGULATIONS

Qualities of Professionalism

All IRSC School of Nursing students are representatives of the Nursing program and are expected to consistently demonstrate qualities of professionalism both on campus and in the clinical setting. These qualities include professional appearance, honesty, respect, accountability, a non-judgmental attitude, trustworthiness, caring, confidentiality, tact and teamwork. Failure to consistently demonstrate qualities of professionalism will result in dismissal from the program.

Social Media sites such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter etc. are subject to the same professional standards related to HIPAA, FERPA and clinical affiliation confidentiality. Violations of this nature will be subject to the same disciplinary action as Section 2.01 Health Science Statement of Ethics in the School of Nursing Division Student Handbook.

Probation and Requested Withdrawal

The Nursing Faculty will counsel and place a student on probation for any of the following reasons:

1. Academic level below that required by the School of Nursing.
2. Unprofessional conduct.
3. Health problems.
4. Unsafe clinical practice.
5. Inability to function adequately with members of health and nursing teams.

8. All class absence make-up will be approved by the classroom instructor. Make-up of absences must be done within each course/unit.

9. All school work (information and assignments) missed will be the responsibility of the individual student.

10. Tardiness in excess of ten minutes will be considered as absent time. Tardiness of 3 or more times will result in a conference.

11. Leaving class early will be classified as absent time in the same manner as tardiness.

UNIFORM DRESS CODE

The personal appearance and demeanor of the Nursing students at IRSC reflect the College and the Nursing program standards and are indicative of the student's interest and pride in the profession. Students are required to be in uniform for all program activities. Students must appear neat and professional at all times. Students are responsible for obtaining the proper size uniform before entering the program. Students will not be permitted on hospital/healthcare units unless they are in correct uniform. Violation of the uniform code will be dealt with on an individual basis. A student may be dismissed from the clinical site for inappropriate attire.
